The Neo-Panglossians Say

Listen to us! You don’t know your history. Our plan is based on a reality transformed to art.

But it’s all fucked up. People get up one morning and are dead
by evening. And for ever-changing reasons! We’re an occupying army,

like hated Germany in France.
President rules by divine right,party
rubber stamping everything.No balls.

And if you can have fewer than none
label you democrat.

Uh huh? You can’t remember things being worse?. Well,History is long,my friend.
Read Strauss,especially the concept of the noble lie. Holy lie it should be called.
And we’ll soon be distributing pictures of Cheney where he doesn’t scowl.

You’re crazy!

Like a fox,my peasant friend.
